

Sunday 26th October

1. After the earthquake, Paul tells the jailer, “Don’t harm yourself, we’re all here.” (vs 28). Why do you think all the prisoners stayed where they were, even though “everybody’s chains had come loose” (vs 26)?
2. Taking the story as a whole, what is the main lesson you learn from it?
3. Using Paul’s instructions in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26, please share communion. As you do so, you could think about Paul and Silas singing for joy in the Philippian jail before the earthquake. What truths do you imagine would have flooded their minds as they sang?
